

X-SCORCH 5001CL

X-SCORCH, Lime Green Cooling Towel, Dot Embossed, Super Absorbent & Evaporative PVA Material, 33.5" x 13", One Per Polybag

Key Features & Benefits:

- Incorporating Evaporative cooling products into your heat stress offering assists in keeping workers cool on hot summer days.

- When soaked in water and wrung out, the towel retains moisture while remaining damp. As the water gradually evaporates, it creates a cooling effect on your skin.

- Portable and lightweight making them convenient to carry and use wherever you need a quick cool down.

- Reusable and washable with no additional power source required.
